

LIVE NEWS OF TWO PITTSSTONS

Events of the Upper End of Luzerne County Briefly Narrated.

PUGNACIOUS ACTORS DISAGREE

Two Members of the King Pin Comedy Company Vary Their Bad Acting by Indulging in a Realistic Presentation of Would-Be Tragedy—Successful Casting of a Monster Brass Piece at the Toulhill Foundry—Run Into by a Reckless Driver—Miscellaneous News Notes of Two Pitts-stons.

[The SCRANTON TRIBUNE's Pitts-ston department is in charge of J. M. Faby, to whom news items and complaints may be referred.]

The "King Pin" company, an organization of would-be actors, inflicted this town with their presence Friday night. They held forth at the Sinclair house. Their success as a comedy company has been anything but a bonanza. They expected it would prove, and as a result the company was about "broke" when the curtain dropped on the last Friday evening in Music hall.

During the early part of the week one of the company who gives his name as Basil Titon, brought suit against William D. Saffer and Robert G. Morris, the proprietors, for wages amounting to $200, and received a bill of sale for $50. The trouble kept brewing until Friday night about 11:30 o'clock. When the company returned from the hall to their quarters at the hotel, Titon made some insinuations concerning his pay when Robert G. Morris, a cripple, having lost his feet some time ago by being frozen, and noted for being the author of "Little Nugget" and other plays, was sitting near by and it is alleged, handed him a cane. Robert G. Morris, his partner, to strike Titon on whom he used the cane with fearful effect. Frank Morris, son of R. G. Morris, and Harry Weibel, took a hand in the fray and assisted in hammering Titon. The latter immediately went before Squire Lyons and secured out a warrant charging his assailants with assault and battery. They were arrested later in the night by Chief Keating and held in $300 bail each for their appearance at court.

Shaffer, one of the combatants, made his escape to Nanticoke, where the company was held. The chief went to Nanticoke in search of him and waited there until Saturday evening, when a dispatch was received by some of the members of the company, who were putting up at Hotel Broadway, to the effect that he had been clocked by a train for Philadelphia. The chief then thinking that he might have been on the Pennsylvania railroad train, which arrived in Nanticoke at 6:14, the train was held and searched by the officer, but the man sought was not on board and the chief returned minus his prey.

The occurrences caused a disruption of the company, and as a consequence Nanticoke people were saved the tortures of "King Pin."

HUGE BRASS CASTING.

It Was Successfully Cast at Toulhill's Shop Saturday.

A brass casting weighing over two tons and costing in the neighborhood of $800 was successfully cast at the works of J. A. Toulhill on North Main street Saturday afternoon without a hitch. The work of preparing the mold consumed nearly six weeks and required much skill in its construction. When the hour arrived to pour the "working barrel," as it is called, a large number of spectators had gathered at the works to witness the interesting sight. When the last drop of the molten metal was emptied into the mold and its success assured much satisfaction was expressed by Master Mechanic Hinton, of the Newton Coal company, who was present.

The casting is for the Newton Coal Mining company, and is to be used in conjunction with one of the pumps to eject the water from their mines. Its construction of brass was found necessary owing to the ravages of the sulphur water and its acidulous principles. Experience by this company has demonstrated that where a similar casting of iron twice the thickness lasted from a month to two weeks at the furthest, one of brass resisted the same pressure from two to three years. The casting above referred to makes the fifth of its kind Mr. Toulhill has cast successfully for this company.

CARVED WITH A KNIFE.

Dominick Harelto Is the Victim of a Pay-Day Row.

William and Frank Malisto, Michael Sunkin, Ignaz Kopplinger and Nicholas Salianova were arrested Saturday on charges of aggravated assault and battery and attempting to kill Dominick Harelto with a knife, early this morning. The parties are all Poles, and the row was the termination of a drunken pay-day spree, indulged in in an unlicensed saloon in the Third ward. Harelto has several dangerous wounds about the neck and head. The collar of his coat was severed. He may die of his injuries. Every window and door in the saloon was shattered, and bottles and glasses were broken.

The prisoners were to have been given a hearing before Justice Elbert in the evening, but Constable Bennett failed to show up with the prisoners.

RUN INTO BY RECKLESS DRIVER.

Soft Drink Dispenser Morris, of Scranton, Is Badly Wounded.

A collision that came near resulting in the serious injury of one of the participants, occurred in front of Kearney's blacksmith shop on North Main street, Saturday morning. The accident was caused by Patrick O'Boyle, a reckless teamster, colliding with a gentleman named Morris, a dealer in soft drinks, and whose place of business is located at Scranton.

Morris was thrown from his seat on the wagon to the ground by the concussion, but escaped injury. The horses became unmanageable for a while, but was finally quieted. No damage whatever resulted from the collision.

MINOR PITTSSTON JOTTINGS.

Personal Notes, News Briefs and Various Interesting Items.

Attorneys C. Frank Bohon, James L. Morris, of this place, and the Messrs. Maud Ashbrook, Annie Wilson and Regina Donovan, of Philadelphia, composed the theater party which witnessed "The Crust of Society" at the Grand

OPERA HOUSE, WILKES-BARRE, SATURDAY EVENING.

Miss Lacey, of Exeter street, will entertain the West Side dancing class at her home next Friday evening.

Mrs. Westcott and Mrs. Walls, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson, on the West Side, for the past few weeks, leave for their respective homes in Oneida and Ithaca today.

Rev. Dr. Barke has accepted an invitation from the local Ministerial union to give a review of his fifty years' pastorate of the First Presbyterian church of Pittston at the next meeting of the union on Feb. 5.

Division 13, Ancient Order of Hibernians, of this place, will entertain their friends with a ball at Ardury hall this evening.

Officer George Llewellyn found it necessary yesterday to use his delivery wagon to convey some fractions printers to the West Side lock-up. They will be given a hearing this morning.

Who is the Pittston correspondent of the Wilkes-Barre Leader? It is a question that is at present agitating not a few persons in this place. He is certainly no novice, as may be learned from his writings, and would prove a valuable acquisition as a political editor for any paper.

The committee of arrangements appointed by the Caledonian club to arrange for the celebration of Robert Burns' birthday on the evening of Jan. 25, are preparing an attractive program for the occasion. The following named gentlemen will deliver addresses: George Mitchell, J. C. Colborn, of Scranton; W. L. Hiles, Dr. D. Ross, Colonel C. H. Campbell, James A. Bryden and M. J. B. Smith.

The "283" club has purchased the library of the late Thomas Stem, which was bid in by Colonel C. K. Campbell, at executors' sale last week. The books were removed Friday from Mr. Stem's estate and are now in the club rooms.

ENTERTAINING LECTURE COURSE.

Palestine Commemorative, Knights Templar, Offer a Varied Program.

Special to the SCRANTON TRIBUNE.

CARONDALE, Pa., Jan. 21.—On Tuesday evening, Jan. 23, will occur the first in the series of high class lectures and entertainments which will be held during the coming week in Masonic hall on Salem avenue, under the auspices of Palestine Commemorative, Knights Templar. The arrangements have been completed with the managers of the various entertainments and lecturers. The finest orators and musicians of the country have been selected by the committee from the host of names sent them by the different lecture bureaus, and each of the entertainments will be a decided treat.

The orator named for the opening of this series is one who needs no introduction in this city. He has been here before and on that occasion delighted a large audience who will ever remember his lectures. Hon. Roswell G. Horr, of New York.

On Feb. 6 will be held the next entertainment, at which time the Temple quartet of Boston, will appear. On Feb. 13, Russell H. Conwell, D. D., L. L. D., of Philadelphia, will deliver his celebrated lecture on "Acres of Diamonds." On Feb. 20, G. L. Riehl, an "Illuminated" lecturer, will deliver a lecture on "The Elements of Good Citizenship." Single and course tickets will be sold within the reach of all, and every one should avail himself of this rare opportunity and enjoy the entertainments.

FOR A BIG CHARITY BALL.

Carbondale Hospital Fund to Be Swelled in This Manner.

Special to the SCRANTON TRIBUNE.

CARONDALE, Pa., Jan. 21.—Tickets have been placed on sale for the charity ball which will be given on Wednesday evening, March 28, the first Wednesday after Easter Sunday, for the benefit of the Carbondale hospital. The committee appointed to take charge of the event consists of Messrs. Shaver, Walker and Norton. Julius Moser will be general manager of the affair. Admission has been fixed at $1 and tickets have been printed and distributed among the business men, who are requested to dispose of them to the firms from which they purchase goods. These tickets will cost $2.50 each, and there will certainly be a large revenue derived from them.

This will be the second charity ball held in behalf of this worthy institution and it promises to far surpass the one formerly held. It will be held in the Keystone hall.

FUNERAL OF THOMAS BURKE.

Knights of Father Mathew and Many Others Attend It.

Special to the SCRANTON TRIBUNE.

CARONDALE, Pa., Jan. 21.—On Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock occurred the funeral services over the remains of the late Thomas Burke. The services were held in St. Rose church, with the Rev. Father Curran officiating. It was one of the largest funerals that has been held in this city in many months. The Knights of Father Mathew, of which organization the deceased was a member, were in attendance, 210 strong.

The pallbearers were Andrew Brennan, William Connor, James Pace, Joseph Walker, Thomas Mallia, Patrick Walker, John Lavelle and John Hart. The flower bearers were Christopher Powderly and Frank Clifford.

WILLIAMS-PHILLIPS NUPTIALS.

Are Solemnized at the Home of the Bride Saturday.

Special to the SCRANTON TRIBUNE.

JERMYN, Pa., Jan. 21.—The marriage of Thomas Williams and Miss Sarah A. Phillips was solemnized at the home of the bride Saturday evening. Rev. F. Gendall officiated. A large number of invited guests were present and participated in the enjoyable occasion. The Citizens band serenaded the couple during the evening. The presents were both costly and useful.

At a late hour the guests departed with best wishes for Mr. and Mrs. Williams.

Criticizing a Young Lady.

"She would be a pretty girl for but one thing."

"What's that?" asked Charley.

Charley—"Her face is always covered with purple and red blotches."

Charley—"Oh, that's easily enough disposed of. I'll be the same way myself, but I caught on to the trouble one day, and got rid of it in no time."

George—"What was it?"

Charley—"Simply blood eruptions. Took a short course of Dr. P. E. P. I tell you, it's the best blood corrector. The governor had rheumatism so bad that you could hardly feel clear across the country every time he moved. He tried it, and you know what an athletic old gent he is now. If somebody would give Miss Daley a pointer, she would thank them for it. All the drug stores sell it."

DANGER IN THE SCHOOLS.

Pres. Eliot of Harvard Calls for Certain Improvements—Why Many Parents Now Fear the Public Schools.

No wonder school children "creep like snail unwillingly to school" and go storming out at playtime.

Five long hours in a crowded, malodorous schoolroom severely tax the nervous system of teachers and scholars. Proper ventilation without drafts is difficult, unsolved problem. Drowsiness, headaches and other effects of bad air show themselves.

Observe the listless, exhausted air, the pale faces of scholars about closing time.

A prominent physician, sneaking of Pres. Eliot's timely criticism of our grammar schools, says: "Our public schools are exhausting the vitality of our children."

"For children and all persons closely confined during the winter in schools, stores and shops who are weak, sickly and nervous."

Dr. F. C. Paine's Celery Compound

and out of sorts, a true blood and nerve tonic, is the only thing that will restore the color of health to their cheeks and fill out their frames. I have found Paine's Celery Compound the best adapted in these cases of lower vitality and lack of nervous tone."

Paine's Celery Compound has saved hosts of overworked school teachers and scholars from nervous prostration. It supplies just what the tired, worn out nervous system requires. Men and women who barely produce sufficient nervous energy to last them through the day find that Paine's Celery Compound supplies them with abundant nervous force, stops headaches, banishes sleeplessness and debility. A decided feeling of added strength and encouragement comes with the use of this great remedy.

A genuine food for under-fed nerves, that will also give tone to the stomach, will soon enable the sick person to discard all medicines and be well and strong. Such a remarkable remedy is Paine's Celery Compound. It is the life's study and experience of one of the ablest physicians of his day, a member of the faculty at Dartmouth college, Prof. Edward E. Paine, M. D., L. L. D. Paine's Celery Compound is not a patent medicine; it is not a sarsaparilla; it is not a bitter or a nerve tonic; it is not an ordinary medicine; it is as far beyond these as a crystal is superior to a piece of chalk in purity and value.

Says Prof. W. C. Ridgway, principal of the famous Jackson school in Kansas City:

"I have used Paine's Celery Compound, and think it is the best medicine that I have ever known. Besides, I have recommended its use to several friends, who have used it with much satisfaction."

HE VAINLY RESISTED ARREST.

Passed a Night in Jail at a Cost of Eight Dollars.

Special to the SCRANTON TRIBUNE.

HONESDALE, Jan. 21.—Thomas Hassett, of Cherry Ridge, became so boisterous on the streets last Friday evening that Officer Smith found it necessary to take him in charge.

Hassett vigorously resisted his arrest and the officer called on a citizen for aid. Together they marched the man to the jail where he passed the night. He was released this morning after paying $8 the fine and costs.

JERMYN'S NEED OF SEWERS.

Plan to Put the Unemployed at Work Constructing Them.

Special to the SCRANTON TRIBUNE.

JERMYN, Pa., Jan. 21.—Now that the mines are working so poorly, and the prospects for better times seem to be dim, cannot the unemployed be utilized putting in sewers under the direction of our city fathers?

This would serve a two-fold purpose, viz., give employment to the needy and help to stamp out the fever which is rapidly becoming epidemic.

The earlier symptoms of dyspepsia, such as distress after eating, heartburn, and occasional headaches, should not be neglected. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla and be cured.

Hood's Pills are the best family cathartic and liver medicine. Harmless, reliable, sure.
